

Yorkshire Party Executive Committee Election - Declaration of Result

Following the close of scheduled voting period at midnight on Monday 12th October 2020 and conclusion of the formal count soon thereafter, in my capacity as Returning Officer and on behalf of the Yorkshire Party Executive Committee, I can now formally declare the 8 candidates duly elected to the Executive Committee in 2020 are as follows:

(To serve a two-year term, commencing as of 00:01 Tuesday 13th October 2020):

- 1. Arnie Craven
- 2. Kimberley Thomas
- 3. Andy Shead
- 4. Tim Norman
- 5. Ryan Kett

(To serve a one-year term, commencing as of 00:01 Tuesday 13th October 2020):

- 6. Andrew Snedden
- 7. Ian Cowling
- 8. Patrick Carragher

Election turnout was 45.2% of paid-up members.

The count was conducted as an online secret ballot using the 'Single Transferable Vote' (STV) method, processed by the election software Opavote. A full report is available to members.

The overall election was administered by myself (as returning officer, appointed by the Executive Committee), and overseen by Darren Longhorn (as party chair).

Congratulations to all our newly elected Executive Committee Members, huge appreciation to the record number of candidates who put themselves forward, a big thank you to every member who voted, and to all the volunteers who help keep our party running and growing.

Jack Carrington,

Returning Officer, & Executive Committee Member
